PLANS TO ASK LEGISLATURE FOR FISH FUND

Wade Warren Thayer Will Recommend Stocking
Hawaii Building

Recommendation to the 1917 legislature for an appropriation to provide Hawaiian fish in the big tanks of the Hawaii building at the San Francisco exposition grounds will be made by Secretary Wade Warren Thayer, who has just returned from the mainland. During his time in San Francisco before sailing for home, Thayer got a continuation of the lease for nine months to the Exposition Preservation League, which extension will cover the time until after the close of the legislature next session. The lease was made at the nominal price of $1.

"The preservation league is taking fine care of the building," he says, "and hundreds of people still visit it every day. Everything is in perfect condition within the building. Foliage has made a wonderful growth, especially the tree ferns which attracted so much attention at the fair."

"President Frank I. Turner and Secretary Charles H. Cheney of the league are both anxious that the tanks be filled with Hawaiian fish, however. They now have fresh water in the tanks and keep them stocked with California fish."

Thayer asked for an estimate from these officers on the amount of money necessary for two tanks, intending to put the proposition to the legislature along with the plan to donate the building to the city and county of San Francisco. Under the present law the building cannot be given away, and its value if sold would be very small.

If donated the building will be fitted with a bronze tablet showing that it is a gift from Hawaii to San Francisco.

BIG ISLAND PEOPLE JOIN AVIATION CLUB

Brig. Gen. Robert K. Evans whose active work for an aero club here has forwarded the movement to such an extent has received a petition from Hawaii signed by prominent persons of the Big Island. The signers state that they "desire to become members of the Aero Club of Hawaii, which upon organization and adoption of a constitution is to become affiliated with the Aero Club of America."

It is the plan, according to the petitioners, to elect officers and organize for business as soon as a suitable number have signed their intention of joining. Gen. Evans will enroll them as charter members of the Aero Club of Hawaii. The local club will meet tomorrow night at the Capitol.

PINEAPPLE PACKERS TO COOPERATE WITH MEMBERS OF PROMOTION COMMITTEE

Trustees of the Hawaiian Pineapple Packers' Association have authorized the San Francisco representative, C. H. Bentley, to make such display and demonstrations at the San Diego exposition on November 16 as was necessary for boosting Hawaii Day.

Bentley was asked to cooperate with Fred J. Halton, San Francisco representative of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, in activities of the packers on Pineapple Day. A number of crates of pineapples will be sent to the various hotels in that section.

RESOLUTION ON INSPECTION MAY NOW BE DROPPED

Reason Need for Care as to All Ships and Passengers is Now Seen

As Supervisor Hatch is expected to be absent from the meeting of the board of supervisors this evening other members of the board thought it unlikely that any action will be taken upon his resolution for an apology to the municipality of San Francisco because of health inspection of passengers and precautionary measures taken by the port health officers for ships coming here from the Bay City. It is learned, however, that the resolution is likely to be either withdrawn or allowed to rest in committee, probably the former, and the board not required to vote upon it.

After hearing Dr. Pratt views relative to the advisability of continuing present regulations have undergone a change. Before the matter was fully understood it seemed to some that it was unfair to inspect ships and passengers from San Francisco when that port did not so treat Honolulu. It was not considered that many vessels coming from there were recently from South American and other points. Nor was it considered that a discontinuance of such regulations might raise international complications. These points are now better understood.

Dr. Pratt has outlined that a discontinuance of health inspection would mean a discontinuance of fumigation of vessels for rats and malaria carrying mosquitoes. From that disease the islands are now free and the introduction of it is to be dreaded. Dr. Pratt said. His explanations as to need for inspection have had their effect upon members of the committee of the board of supervisors and it is doubtful if that committee would report favorably on the resolution even if it be not withdrawn by Supervisor Hatch, a contingency which is not expected.

"JUMP-ING AROUND IN HAWAII" FACTOR IN BOOSTING ISLANDS

"Jumping Around in Hawaii" is already bringing results. The book published by J. W. Jump, noted angler, telling of the game-fish in Hawaii has attracted much attention here and on the mainland, and as a result the Hawaii Promotion Committee is already receiving inquiries about Hawaii from mainlanders who have read Jump's book.

GOVERNOR NAMES TWO DISTRICT MAGISTRATES

Governor Pinkham made today two appointments for district magistrates—one on the island of Oahu and one on Maui.

E. P. Aikue is appointed for a term of two years as magistrate of the district of Koolapo, Oahu, succeeding himself. Aikue's home is at Waikaloa. George P. Kaimakaloa of Hana, Maui, is also appointed as magistrate of that district, succeeding J. K. Filmanu.

COMMANDANT OF NAVAL STATION AD CLUB'S GUEST

Organization Hears Brief Talk
From Him, Also Tips on Good Roads

Members of the Ad Club who met today at their regular Wednesday luncheon were treated to a varied program which ran from an address by Capt. G. R. Clark, new commandant of the naval station, Pearl Harbor, to talks on good roads; and reports were also heard on what the various committees working on the Civic Convention at Hilo are doing. The members also greeted several of their number who have recently returned from trips to the mainland.

The next meeting of the Ad Club will be held Tuesday noon instead of Wednesday, as the club leaves on the latter day for Hilo to attend the convention.

Capt. Clark was the guest of honor and expressed his pleasure in being able to return to Hawaii. "Years ago when King Kalakaua was on the throne," Clark said, "I visited Honolulu as a midshipman and took part, although a minor one, at Kalakaua's coronation. There have been many changes here since then and as I go about the city memories crowd back upon me. But," he continued, "the changes are only external, for the beautiful flowers, climate, sky and, I might add, the liquid sunshine, remain unchanged."

John Effinger, just back from the mainland, was full of good roads ideas and they came out with a rush when he was called on to speak.

A. F. Clark, chairman of the road committee of the Ad Club, spoke on the road improvement work which has started, particularly in Manoa valley and the King street extension, and said that the delay in starting the work was not the fault of the men in charge but was caused by the frontage tax law, which at the next session of the legislature he hoped to have amended. Concerning the bond issue Clark said that of the 102 votes so far cast by the Ad Club members 76 were in favor of the issue and 21 against.

Following up the idea of good roads John Effinger, who has just returned from California, where he stated he had ridden over 7000 miles of the best roads to be found there, surprised the members by declaring that there is no reason why Hawaii should not have good roads as there is certainly enough money spent and he believed the present lack was due to the incompetency of the men in charge. He also touched on the inspection of vessels here, declaring strongly against it.

Among the men present who were greeted with rousing cheers was Charles L. Rhodes, formerly editor of the Hawaiian Star, now a business man of San Francisco, who is going to Australia, and during the meeting it was voted to appoint Rhodes a delegate of the Ad Club during his stay in the Antipodes. Rhodes has been away for seven years and said he had been looking forward to his return for a long time.

Tom Sharp, secretary, announced that during the convention a moving picture outfit had been secured and would travel with them throughout the convention, taking pictures at all stages which will later be shown.

JOHN C. COOK TO TAKE MAINLAND VACATION

John C. Cook, for many years cashier of Theo. H. Davies & Co., and who left the company a year ago, is planning to go to San Francisco for a month or two with his wife for a vacation.

The date of his departure has not been definitely set, but he will go as soon as he has disposed of his home and furniture. Eventually, it is understood, he will return to his home in England, but he will return to Honolulu first and will probably not go to England until after the war is over.

Wheel of Progress

Is Divided Into Four Principal Parts

1. Religion

2. Politics

3. Invention

4. Advertising

Religion is not church going, but an Honest Heart, a Clean Mind, and Good Living.

Politics is not graft and corruption, but Political Economy, Public Welfare, Democratic Development;

Invention is not magic, but the Aspiration and Achievements of the Sciences;

Advertising Crystallizes These; it Solidifies them, it Uses them.

Advertising heralds the goods of religion and carries them to the populace;

Advertising preaches political advancement and brings the people to its support;

Advertising sends broadcast inventive accomplishments and brings about their wider use.

Religion sold to the populace means a bigger, better, healthier and stronger nation;

Support of Political Advancement brings about better government, national economy, greater usefulness, idealistic politics;

Wider Use of Inventions means more efficient people; less waste, more life.

And thus we see that although Religion, Politics, Inventions may be great, and they are, that they are but the three spokes in the wheel of progress; and that advertising is the hub of the wheel; the hub which radiates to the people those goods of the world which stand for bigger life, better life, progress; a bigger and better progress.

Religion—Politics—Invention—Advertising.

This is the wheel of progress.
